Re: U.S. v. Patrick Patterson
21 Cr. 313 (JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

I write on behalf of Patrick Patterson, with the government's consent, requesting a final adjournment of sentencing to a date convenient to the Court in January 2024. Mr. Patterson's sentencing is presently scheduled for October 5th.

I make this request because I require additional time to prepare with Mr. Patterson for his sentencing. As The Court is aware, I have been addressing serious health issues, which have improved within the very recent past. However, throughout the past three months, I have been tending to my personal health, and I am finally in a place to begin moving forward with all the matters that have been rescheduled due to my condition. I do not anticipate the need for any further adjournments.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that sentencing be adjourned as requested herein.

The Court's consideration is so greatly appreciated.

Granted. Sentencing is hereby adjourned to January 18, 2024 at 2:30 pm. Defendant's sentencing submission is due by January 4, 2024, and the government's by January 11, 2024.
So ordered.

Respectfully,

Barry S. Zone
